LOCALLY SOURCED TO PRODUCE SUMPTUOUS FINE FOOD

AN EVENT LIKE YOURS?

What goes into the pot is all important, so when creating a menu we take many factors into account. Firstly we like to use local ingredients. Our suppliers know our standards and raise their game in bringing us the leanest meats, the freshest vegetables (straight from mother earth) and finest fresh fish to ensure an incredible taste and a fabulous meal.

Relax - on the night or day leave it to us while you enjoy. From venue sourcing to table dressing, Pickled Walnut can orchestrate your function from start to finish. Our customers speak highly of our offering and we enjoy repeat business.

But we don't rest on our laurels. We haven't forgotten the joy of discovery and we research and experiment to enhance our already extensive menus. We don't just cook - we elevate food to its highest potential and craft dishes that taste and look divine.

We never forget, our passion is all for one thing... you.

WINE

Sourcing the perfect wines to compliment and enhance a meal is something we relish.

Keeping abreast of new developments from the vineyards, we provide a superior selection of old and new world wines.

REPUTATIONS

The Pickled Walnut has catered for high-profile receptions and dinners at the Cathedral when clients wanted the reassurance of quality, and a high standard of presentation. It is particularly important to us, as a venue, that both of these are a 'given'. What sets this company apart is a creativity the chefs bring to a regionally-themed menu, tailoring individual menus to each event"

Eryl Parry - Liverpool Anglican Cathedral

Event management is one of our core services and it's vital that we partner with people who have the same high standards. We have worked with Pickled Walnut for a number of years now. The quality of their food is quite simply nothing less than superb and is presented with imagination and creativity. The service we receive before and during our events is consistently excellent and our clients regularly tell us how impressed they are.

We love working with them and couldn't recommend them more highly."

Geraldine McEntegart - Clarity Creation
